Wingless Sprints Star at PCR

A field of 20 cars faced the Arthur Cowan green for the 25 lap Tyrepower Main Event.

Peter Fagen Jnr took the early lead, but in turn two on lap one 16 year old Brook Skipper rode a wheel of the car in front and barrell rolled in spectacular fashion ending up against the turn two tyre barrier. Brooke climbed from the Australia Wide Towing sprinter unhurt.

The restart saw Fagen again lead the way when Mark Garey spun his car in turn four bringing on the orange light. Another restart and Fagen was racing with Garry Peers, as the two drivers banged wheels down the back straight it was Roddy Bell Bowen who drove around both drivers to take the lead on lap four.

ADAM BUTLERS WINGLESS SPRINTER

The orange light was brought on again no less then four times with drivers, Rachell Neve, Nick O kane, Caroline Craft and Peter Fagen all spinning out during the event.

The red lights were brought on another two occassions when Former World Ice Skating Champion Jim Lynch aged 61 barrell rolled and destroying his Frank Cross sprinter in turn two.

The tacky PCR surface also claimed Mark Garey came to grief in turn two with only a handfull of laps to travel.

Bell Bowen went on to win the exitment filled event from Daniel Flood and Adam Butler.

The final top ten were:-

Roddy Bell Bowen
Daniel Flood
Adam Butler
Karl Skelton
Rob Rawlings
